Welcome to today's visitors Blackpool as Bolton Wanderers try to get back on winning ways after the disappointment of the midweek defeat at Luton.

In that game we competed well. I must give the players full marks for fighting every inch of the way, but in the end it wasn't our night.

I made changes for the game with Paul Jones playing at right back in place of the injured John Ritson—and he did very well.

Some of our balance was restored by the return of Ray Train to midfield.

We saw Alan Gowling play up front for the first time when he came on as substitute in place of Frank Worthington with just over 20 minutes of the game left.

But when we scored our goal, through Paul Jones, to pull the score-line back to 2-1 it was too late for us to grab the equaliser.

Today's game against Blackpool, if previous encounters are anything to go by will be an interesting one.

In the meeting between the sides earlier this season at Bloomfield Road, we gave one of our best performances of the season to land two points.

I hope we can put our game together as well this afternoon. In the game at Blackpool, Tony Dunne was injured and after a couple of injuries in training and a game at Mansfield when he played with a broken bone in an arm, he came back into the side at Luton.

He played well and I must compliment him on his attitude which is a fine example to the youngsters at Bolton.

Let's hope today's game is one to remember as we continue our efforts to win a place in the First Division.

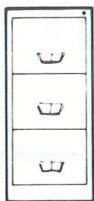

Ian Greaves

BOB WARD — Goalkeeper signed from West Brom for a £15,000 fee to take over from George Wood on his transfer to Everton this season.

LARRY MILLIGAN — Young defender who was formerly an apprentice at Blackpool. Got his chance in the side on the departure of Steve Harrison to Canada recently.

ALAN GROVES — Signed from Oldham Athletic, Alan is a speedy winger in the traditional mould. Very tricky, he can be a real crowd-pleaser on his day.

ALAN AINSWORTH — Joined Blackpool as an apprentice in July 1970. Signed as full time professional in 1971. Has good ball control and is a lively forceful player. Born in Bolton.

TREVOR FINNIGAN — Previous club Runcorn. Blackpool are his second League club having had previous experience with Everton. Has a lot of potential and a flair for goals.

PAUL GARDNER — Chorley lad. Made his debut v Arsenal (League Cup) last season and made great strides until a cartilage put him on the sidelines. Came back late in the season. Strong resolute defender.

BOB HATTON — Signed from Birmingham City. Strong forceful attacker. Has struck up good understanding with Micky Walsh, and has become a prolific scorer with four hat-tricks this season.

STAN McEWAN — A Scot — Blackpool being his only English club. Commanding in the air, skilful on the ground. Looks to have a good future in the game.

BILLY RONSON — A local lad. Signed for Blackpool in August 1972. Made his first team debut against Nottm. Forest on March 29th, 1975. At his best coming forward and has an eye for scoring goals.

PETER SUDDABY — English amateur formerly of Skelmersdale, signed from Wycombe Wanderers in May 1970. He has now taken over the captaincy and is a commanding player in defence.

DAVID TONG — Local lad, has been limited to a few first team appearances due to injuries. A very skilful midfielder player who can make and score goals.

MICKY WALSH — Another Chorley lad, has made a big impact since coming into first team. An Eire international who has been linked with a number of First Division clubs.

ALAN WALDRON — Midfield player signed from the Wanderers earlier this season. A clever player who joined Bolton from school. Born Oldham area.

MAX THOMPSON — Signed from Liverpool after a spree on loan at Bloomfield Road. A constructive defender, he is expected to be a big asset to the Bloomfield Road staff.

Today's Visitors

It looks as if Blackpool's promotion challenge is going to fail yet again, after several near-misses. Perpetual promotion challengers for the past six years, Blackpool are once again staking a strong claim.

They have been in contention since they lost their First Division place in 1971. But, as is the case this season, they have usually lacked sufficient consistency to make sure of a return to the top.

Only when their last realistic chance disappeared did Blackpool agree to sell centre-back Paul Hart to Leeds for £330,000 and permit left-back Steve Harrison his release to play in the U.S.A.

Striker Mick Walsh had hoped to move on to a First Division club, too, but the Tangerines were not prepared to strip themselves of yet another important asset for they are now preparing for another promotion challenge next season.

Hart's place in the middle of the defence has been taken over by Max Thompson, signed from Liverpool for £80,000 for that specific purpose, and we can expect to see him line up with Stan McEwan at the heart of the defence.

Laurie Milligan was recalled to fill Harrison's place while Paul Gardner continues at right-back.

Blackpool picked up £150,000 when they sold goalkeeper George Wood to Everton shortly before the start of this season but they re-invested only a fraction of that fee — just £15,000 in fact — for his replacement Bob Ward, signed from West Bromwich.

Blackpool have signed two midfield players in recent weeks. Alan Waldron, of course, needs no introduction for he went to Blackpool from Burnden Park but Tom Sermanni was picked up from Scottish club Albion Rovers where he had been, a regular goalscorer.

Other midfield players include Willie Ronson and Jeff Chandler.

Both Mick Walsh and Dave Hatton have enjoyed a fine season as their chief strikers. The club's continual failure to regain its First Division place put a question mark upon the future of Walsh, their Republic of Ireland international forward, at the end of last season. He was confidently expected to have moved on during the summer, or failing that, during the course of the season.

The loss of a man who has topped their scoring list for the past three seasons, and who has netted 12 times so far this term, would have severely dented their promotion hopes, however, and manager Allan Brown did everything in his power to keep his prize asset.

Whereas in the recent past Blackpool have had to rely almost exclusively upon Walsh for their goals, he has now been joined by Bob Hatton, who joined them two seasons ago from Birmingham for £50,000. Hatton has been a top scorer for Carlisle and Birmingham in the past and now he is leading the way for Blackpool with 22.

Hatton has scored four hat-tricks this season — against Orient, Cardiff, Charlton and Blackburn. He actually got four in Blackburn's net.

Depending upon Blackpool's tactics, we could also see either Alan Groves, the winger signed from Oldham this season, or David Tong in attack.

Since their relegation in 1971, Blackpool have never been very far away from the leaders. Yet when it came to the final analysis they were found lacking each time. Even last season, when they finished with a magnificent run of nine games, they were just the one point short of the requirement in the end.

In 1974, they seemed certain to have bagged the two points they needed to guarantee promotion when they led 1-0 at Sunderland with only seven minutes to go. Then Sunderland popped in two to kill them.

Life has been like that for Blackpool in recent years: so near, but yet . . . so far.
